

PRESENT PERFECT SIMPLE

A Put the verbs in brackets into the Present Perfect Simple.

- "Is Mark sleeping? I want to talk to him."
"No, he isn't sleeping. He has just woken up (just, wake up)."
- He's a champion. He _____ (race) in ten car-races this year and _____ (win) nine of them.
- I _____ (never, ride) a horse in my life but I _____ (always, want) to ride one.
- He _____ (travel) to many countries since 1990. He _____ (be) to Sweden, England, France, Finland and Mexico. He _____ (go) to China this week.
- "Hello, Alice! I'm having dinner. Do you want to join me?"
"Yes. I _____ (not have) dinner yet."
- Mr Johnson is going to retire next month. He _____ (work) with this company for 40 years.
- "Why aren't you writing, Kelly?"
"I'm sorry, Mrs Lane. I _____ (cut) my finger and it hurts."

B Look and find the Past Participles. Then write them with their infinitives, as in the example.

C Complete using for or since.

- He hasn't washed his car for two months.
- The children have been at school _____ this morning.
- I haven't written a letter to my grandparents _____ last year.
- Jill and I have been friends _____ years.
- Jim isn't tired. He has slept _____ ten hours.
- Carla is on a diet. She hasn't eaten any sweets _____ Sunday.