

Closer look at animals on factory farms, page 56.

A. Choose the right answer.

1. The text mainly talks about
A. factory farms. B. animal protection laws. C. the aims of ASPCA
2. Who would be most interested in reading this text?
A. Food scientists B. Biology students C. The general public
3. This type of text could be found in a(n)
A. science magazine B. food magazine c. animal magazine
4. The majority of Americans believe that animals raised for food should be treated
A. without cruelty. B. violently. c. with no care.

B. Find if the following statements are True, False or Not Mentioned.

1. Factory farms are industries that raise animals for profit.
2. In the US birds are protected by animal laws.
3. Animal welfare is of great importance to factory farm owners.
4. 300 million chickens are killed for their meat in the US every year.
5. Around 8.5 billion chickens produce eggs in the US factory farms every year.
6. Farm animals should be raised in open farms.
7. ASPCA tries to inform people about the conditions in factory farms.
8. Chickens raised in factory farms leave no more than five months.
9. Chickens raised for egg production look the same as chickens raised for meat production.
10. Genetic cell control causes serious health problems of chickens in factory farms.