

WRITING

You have decided to enter a creative writing competition. The title of the competition entry is the following: “Every Building has its own Story”. Look at the building in the picture and write its story.

The following questions will help you.

Where is it? How old is it? Who made it? For what purpose? What does it look like? What is the story behind it?

